We visited the Village Cemetery, Hinesburg, VT, several years ago. We were able to obtain several dates from the grave stones, and Hinesburg vital records provided birth records for John & Dolly (Phelps) Weed's children.

We also visited the cemetery in Shelburne, VT, where we found the graves of Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps plus Elijah and his two wives and children. It was almost by accident that I saw Dorothy's grave since we had already passed by that row. I looked back, and the sun was just at the right angle for me to read Dorothy Phelps. We also found supporting data in the Shelburne vital records.

In October, we plan to pass through northern Vermont again on our way to Massachusetts. I hope to take my husband, Ed, to these cemeteries. My daughter was with me when we found Dorothy & Elijah's graves.

ARTEMAS KENT.

The subject of this sketch was the son of Moses and Abigail Kent, and was born in Dorset, Vt., Aug. 31, 1787. His parents were of New England origin, and reared their children on the farm. Artemas Kent came to Hopkinton in 1808, and settled on the place where he resided until his death. His occupation was farming. He married Miss Sarah Weed, of Hinesburg, Vt., in December, 1818. She was born in October, 1799. As a result of said marriage ten children were born, eight of whom are still living. Mrs. Kent was a member of the Congregational church at Hopkinton. She died April 21, 1842. Mr. Kent married Mrs. Rhoda Winslow, widow of Dr. M. Winslow, of Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1845. She died June 28, 1875.

In politics he was first a Whig, then a Republican. He has been justice of the peace, and held some minor offices in his town. He was a member of the Congregational church at Hopkinton. He was in favor of good schools, and did what he could to encourage the young to attend school. He lived to be an old gentleman of ninety years, save ten days. He lived respected, and died regretted.

This brief biography and portrait above are given by his children, in memory of their aged father.

RIUS EDMUND,[8] son of Moses,[7] Moses,[6] Cephas,[5] was b. rset, Vt., Feb. 22, 1813, and in 1823 the family moved to wrence Co., N.Y. From his boyhood he was thoroughly ined in the school of poverty incident to those pioneer As he grew to manhood he became very active, and f his life was closely identified with the business interests thern New York, being prominent in agricultural and tate transactions which gave him an extensive acquaint-hrough St. Lawrence Co. and vicinity, where he was known to nearly every inhabitant. He was a man of untiring industry, of remarkable energy and unremitting zeal, and he was eminently successful. His most distinguishing characteristics were undoubtedly a certain spirit of self-reliance and indifference to the sentiments of such as might disregard his ways of thinking or distrust his methods. In the prime of life it was seldom that his judgment failed him, or that he undertook an enterprise that miscarried. His strong personality led him to disregard the conventionalities of society. Pronounced in his dislike for pretension, whether in religion, politics, dress, or social distinction, he was wont to place the real above the fanciful, character above reputation, substance above show, virtue above moral veneer. In 1842 he mar. Jane Green of Hopkinton, N.Y., a benevolent, loving, and faithful woman, who d. Dec. 24, 1884. His home was at Potsdam, N.Y., for many years, but during the last twenty years of his life he resided at Westfield, N.Y., where he died at his residence on First street Mch. 2, 1886, at 73 years of age.

LUCIAN HERVEY,[8] son of Moses,[7] Moses,[6] Cephas,[5] mar. at Lawrence, N.Y., June 9, 1849, Mary Fay McEwen, who was b. Feb. 20, 1824, at Hinesburgh, Vt. The paternal ancestors of Lucian were a hardy, long-lived race of people, whose names have been closely identified with the history of New England from the time of the early English colonies. But while such a staunch paternity bequeathed to the subject of this sketch a generous legacy of qualities of heart and brain, by some mischance the wheel of fortune cast to his lot the impediments of poverty and a frail physique with which to overcome the many adverse elements which thickly beset his path. When but six years of age he was taken with his parents, under trying circumstances, to St. Lawrence Co., N.Y., the journey being made in the old-style overland manner by ox-team, in the middle of a severe winter, and through an almost unbroken wilderness. Among the misfortunes of this two-hundred mile journey overland were the loss of household goods and narrow escape from freezing. At their destination, after settling in a small aboriginal hamlet consisting of ten rude log dwellings, the destitute family began the struggle for existence. With the constraints of physical disability on the part of the parents, with the barren condition of the locality in which they pitched their misfortunes, and especially the embarrassments attendant upon the lack of means with which to get a start, this struggle

HUSBAND - Rufus GREENE-265

1820 Census, Shelburne, Chittenden Co., VT, Rufus Green, 2 males, under 10; 1 male, 10-15; 1 male, 16-26 (error if this is Rufus); 1 female, under 10; 1 female, 16-26; 1 female, 26-45.

a letter to Hattie Mae Leach in l867. Who were Jonathon Greene's parents? He was a neighbor of John Weed in Hinesburg, VT, on the l800 census.

CHILD 6 - Mary C. GREENE-24

These sources were used for the following notes concerning research into the possible ancestry of Mary Leach's father, Rufus Greene:

Louise Brownell Clarke, EXCERPTS FROM THE GREENES OF RHODE ISLAND, compiled from MSS. of the late Major General George Sears Greene, USA (New York: 1903), pp. 214-219,

REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND OLD FAMILIES OF RHODE ISLAND, GenealogicalRecords and Historical Sketches of Prominent and Representative Citizens and of Many of the Old Families. . ., 3 v. (Chicago, J. H. Beers, 1908,), pp. 1282, 1283.

VITAL RECORDS OF RHODE ISLAND, "East Greenwich--Births & Deaths", p. 120.

Three other children of Rufus & Martha Greene lived &/or died in NY. Mary, wife of John Reynolds, moved to Hancock, Delaware Co., NY; Martha, wife of George Harris, moved to Stamford, Schoharie Co., NY; & David, a mariner, died in NY in 1792, his wife, Eunice Hopkins, died in Lawrence/Laurens, Otsego Co., NY, in 1836.

Was Rufus Greene, b. about 1787, husband of Betsey Weed, & father of Mary C. Greene, a son of either Rufus or William Greene? A suggestion of a possible relationship was provided when it was discovered that Jonathan, a younger brother of Rufus & William Greene, was a close neighbor of John Weed, Betsey Weed's father.

Early New York State vital records do not exist and Vermont records are incomplete; therefore, alternative sources of Greene vital information need to be found. Many questions need answers, but chance, just plain luck, & perseverance may play a part in finding answers to the Green ancestry. A look at census & other available records for Mary's siblings may prove helpful.

2nd Thoughts, – Later

Doesn't help you, though !!
You probably have this – which is quite good.

I am wondering now about Thomas b 1628 who m. Eliz Barton of Rufus. Had a son Benjamin & grandson Benjamin (who m. Phebe Arnold). Benj Greene in Dutchess Co. N.Y. and Penn. Arnolds in same district & prominent – one Elisha Allen especially. Also Elisha Greene in area – not connected by me were only two John Greenes that settled in Rhode Island before 1650 and that the alleged English ancestry of John Greene of Quidnesset has not been established. John Greene died between 24 Mar 1681/2 and 25 Sep 1685. The latter date is the date of a deed from Joseph Clark of Newport to Francis Brinley which makes reference to land which was formerly in possession of "John Greene, Sr. of Narragansett, now deceased. " The time of John Greene's settlement in Rhode Island can not be determined exactly. He testified in 1679 that "forty years and more" earlier he lived with Richard Smith who first began "a settlement in the Narragansett. " A week later in a petition to the king, he stated that he and Richard Smith had settled in the Narragansett forty-two years earlier, where there were no English within twenty miles. These two statements would place the time of his settlement between one and three years after Roger Williams' settlement at Providence in 1636. We know that John Greene was in Rhode Island by 1647 because he is named in deed dated 1647 from David and Edward Greenman. But an earlier date than 1647 is probably correct since he also stated in his 1679 testimony that he "did improve land and mow meadows several years before Warwick was settled by any English man. " Since Warwick was settled in 1642, this would place the probable time of his settlement between 1637 and 1642. Therefore, about 1639 John Greene worked for Richard Smith at an Indian trading post in the wilderness of the Narragansett. This area was called Aquidnesset by the Indians which was shortened to Quidnesset by the colonists. Hence, he is known as John Greene of Quidnesset. According to Roger Williams, Richard Smith had left England "for conscience' sake"; and it is not difficult to imagine that both he and John Greene came to Rhode Island to extricate themselves from the religious yokes placed on the colonists in the Massachusetts Bay and Plymouth colonies. John Greene was probably unmarried at the time he settled in Rhode Island since his oldest son was not born until about 1643. Nothing is known of the wife of John Greene, except that on 24 March 1682 Joan Greene joined her husband John in deeds transferring a hundred and twenty acres of land to their son, Daniel Greene, and sixty acres to their son, James Greene, on condition that they each pay 30s a year as long as either their father or mother was alive. We do not know if she was his only wife and the mother of all of his children, or if she were a later wife. Two or more marriages were quite common at the time because of an early death of a prior spouse. The Narragansett country in which Richard Smith and John Greene were the first settlers was the subject of a controversy between the colonies of Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and Connecticut as to which colony had jurisdiction. Rhode Island claimed the Narragansett country, but Connecticut and Massachusetts did likewise. Connecticut made its claim in 1663 and did not fully relinquish it until 1741. Massachusetts was less forceful in their claim basing it on various requests for assistance made by residents in the Narragansett. These requests included those by the residents of Warwick when they were quarreling with the town of Providence and request for aid during King Philip's War. John Greene and Richard Smith at one point threw in their lot with Connecticut probably because the Rhode Island Assembly had sought to void any purchase of land from the Indians without permission of the Assembly. The result was that John Greene was arrested on 11 May 1664. In court John Greene tactlessly spoke his mind offending the court and was forced to retract his statement. He then revised his position and requested that the court pardon his "offense in adhering to the government of Connecticut. " This pardon was granted and he was permitted to return home. In 1679, John Greene participated in a petition to the King seeking to resolve the jurisdictional disputes between Connecticut and Rhode Island over the Narragansett region. John Greene participated in several major land purchases, including the purchase of Fone's Neck which became East Greenwich where he later moved and the island of Conanicut, now called Jamestown. Identifying John Greene,

Jr. Son of John Greene of Quidnesset Copyright 1998 by Wm. E. Wright - Send comments and questions by e-mail: wmewrght(at)hal-pc. org. John O. Austin in Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island and other writers identify John Greene, Jr., son of John Greene of Quidnesset as the John Greene who married Abigail and died in Oct. 1729. In his will proved in Warwick, he gives his age as being in his 79th year or there abouts (Austin, p 86; Beaman, RIGR, III:282). That places his birth ca 1651. The will is recorded in Vol. 1, pp 301-303 of Warwick wills. Both Austin and Beaman examined the original independently and there is no major difference in their abstracts, other than the surname of daughter Hannah. Austin calls her "Hannah Andrew" and Beaman calls her "Hannah Aldro. " Neither report a son Andrew as reported by Walter and Ella Greene (A Greene Family History, 1981) and Huling (Narragansett Historical Register, II:137-144, 1651-176, 253-264; III:20-33, 320). Louise Prosser Bates in articles published in Rhode Island Historical Collections, XI:69-78,117-121; XII:15-26 identifies John Greene with wife Mary Jefferay as the son of John of Quidnesset. Austin calls this John Greene, "John Greene of Newport. " The descendants of John and Abigail are many and they, quite naturally, would like to establish their ancestry. Generally they follow that given by Austin and others, that John, who married Abigail, was the son of John of Quidnesset. What are the arguments in support of each position. Date of Birth Austin and Huling list the birth date of John Greene, Jr. as 6 June 1651. This is the same date of birth as that given to a John Greene, son of John and Anne (Almy) Greene and grandson of John Greene, surgeon, of Warwick (Clarke, The Greens of Rhode Island, pp 62,71). Arnold (Rhode Island Vital Records) lists this birth date for John Greene, son of John and Ann, in the vital records of Warwick. LaMance (The Greene Family and Its Branches, 1904, p 74) says that he was born in 1645 and that the 16 June 1651 birth date usually assigned to him really belongs to John3 of the John Greene, surgeon line (as reported by Clarke). The reason LaMance gives for the 1645 birth date is that he owned land with his father in 1666. There was some squabble about the land and John, Jr. and his brother spent some time in New York. She reports that when he moved to East Greenwich in 168_ he was called "Lieutenant John Greene of New York. " In order to own land in 1666, he would have had to be 21 years old. Hence the 1645 birth date. This 1645 birth date conflicts with his age as given in his 1729 will, but then ages reported by elderly persons at the time have proved notoriously inaccurate. Usually, however, their ages are overstated, not understated. John Greene does state in his will that he was in his "79th years or there abouts. " So he was unsure of his age. Bates says that Lieut. John Greene of Newport was born probably about 1640. She probably reached this conclusion because his wife was born in 1642. Analyzing the likely birth dates of the three John Greenes: John3 Greene, grandson of John Greene, surgeon, of Warwick, b 6 June 1651. John Greene, wife Abigail, died 1729, b ca 1651 (possibly as early as 1645 per LaMance). John Greene, wife Mary Jefferay, b ca 1640 (possibly as late as 1645 if this is the son in the 1666 "John Greene and Son" discussed below). John Greene and Son in 1666 Huling reports about this 1666 land entry. "In 1666 the proprietors of the northern part of Quidnesset neck made a division of their lands, previously, so far as appears, unsurveyed. On a plat which purports to indicate the boundaries of each piece of property in that region in that year, a tract of one hundred and fifty-one acres is assigned to 'John Greene and Son. '. . . Previous to 1800 the whole of this property had been purchased from Greene's descendants by the Allen's, in which latter family nearly all of it is now owned. " Note, the plat says that the land is owned by John Greene and Son, but the son is not named. In March 1681-2, John Greene and his wife Joan conveyed to their son, Daniel Greene, one hundred and twenty acres bordering on Allen's Harbor,3/4 the farm now owned by Mr. Joseph Allen,3/4 and also to their son, James

Greene, sixty acres adjoining across the brook to the northward, the consideration in each case being the same, viz., the annual payment of thirty shillings as long as the father or mother should live. At this time the land next north of James Greene's estate was owned by a John Greene, presumably the son of the elder John, who three years later was a resident of East Greenwich. In Feb. 1682 John Greenman acknowledged, for himself and his brother David, the deed he had given Greene to land in Newport in 1647. Analyzing this information: In 1666 the son in "John Greene and Son" is not named. John Greene of Quidnessett with wife Joan convey this land in Quidnesset to sons Daniel and James in 1681/2. A neighboring landowner is another John Greene. Austin says this neighboring landowner is John Greene, the son of John Greene of Quidnesset. John Greene of Newport and John Greene of Narragansett Bates notes that Richard Smith of Narragansett and John Greene of Newport each bought one-fortieth of the islands of Conanicut and Dutch. John Greene was said to have been the first man who improved his land there. The land was purchased 17 Apr 1657. In Jan. 1661, Greene sold his land. Austin says this is John Greene of Newport, husband of Mary Jefferay. On 25 Sep 1685, the adjoining landowner sold his land which was bounded by land formerly in possession of "John Greene, Sr., of Narragansett, now deceased. " These transactions identify John Greene of Newport and John Greene of Narragansett (Quidnesset) as the same person according to Bates. The 25 Sep 1685 deed also indicates that John Greene of Quidnesset was deceased by that time. Analysis: Bates conclusion appears logical. Quidnessett is a part of the Narragansett. John Greene of Quidnessett lived in Newport some of the time in the 1640-1650s. So he could have been known as John Greene of Newport, John Greene of Quidenssett, and John Greene of Narragansett. But the later references in the 1680s to John Greene of Newport would be a different person. Bates also did not say that the John Greene of Newport who married Mary Jefferay is the same person as John Greene of Quidnesset. Oath of loyalty Bates notes that in May 1671 John Greene and his sons, Henry Greene and Daniel Greene, took the oath of loyalty to Rhode Island. Where was John Greene, Jr. and his other brothers? Questions and analysis: The absence of Edward and John might support LaMance's idea that John and Edward were in New York at this time. Benjamin, Robert and James were too young to take the oath. If John was born later than May 1650 (as the 1729 will of John with wife Abigail suggests), he also would be too young. Fones Purchase 1 Jan. 1672, John Greene of Quidnissitt was one of the men engaged in the Fones' purchase, which was confirmed to the twenty-four partners in 1677. This land was the genesis of the town of East Greenwich in 1677. John Greene and John Greene, Jr. signed a letter with John Fones and others on 27 July 1679 regarding this land purchase. John Greene, sr., drew the ninth house lot and the third ninety acre farm. Edward Greene sold these to George Vaughn in deeds stating that they descended to him by will of his father, John Greene, deceased. Bates goes on to say that John Greene, Jr., called at the time Lieut. John Greene of Newport, had a special meeting of the townsmen of East Greenwich called, 14 May 1685, when as a Fones purchaser he was recognized as a townsman and was allowed to draw his town lot and farm. He drew the sixth town lot and the nineteenth farm. Austin also states that "Lieutenant John Greene of Newport" was admitted a freeman of East Greenwich and was granted 100 acres. Austin says this Lieutenant John Greene of Newport is the one who married Mary Jefferay. (Note, this is the transaction to which LaMance says he is described as "Lieutenant John Greene of New York. " Huling also mentions that "Lieut. John Greene, of New York," was admitted a freeman in East Greenwich 14 May 1685, "concerning whose origin nothing more is known, but who may have been the partner of Fones in the above purchase. " A review of East Greenwich deeds and records might clarify whether this is "New York" or "Newport. ") Per

Bates, on 1 May 1690, John Greene of Newport sold to Giles Peirce the ten acre house lot that Lieut. John Greene of Newport had drawn in 1685. Lieut. John Greene of Newport's farm lot was sold 13 Feb 1707/8 by Thomas Langford and wife Sarah of East Greenwich to Zachariah Jenkins of Barnstable. No deed has been found that explains how this farm came into the possession of Thomas Langford. A Thomas Langford was one of the beneficiaries named in the will of John Greene of Newport. This will dated 4 Sep 1694 is recorded in Taunton, Massachusetts, USA. Bates says that Lieut. John Greene of Newport, was born probably about 1640. He married Mary Jefferay, daughter of William and Mary (Gould) Jefferay of Newport. Lieutenant John died suddenly at Seekonk, Massachusetts, USA, 4 Sep 1694. He was admitted a freeman of Newport in 1668. Analysis: Even though John Greene, Jr. was one of the original Fones purchasers and signer of the 1679 letter, he was not a resident and hence may have been ineligible to draw his town lot and farm. Where was he? Wandering around New York as LaMance says or in Newport? Huling probably read the East Greenwich records and read "Lieut. John Greene of New York. " Austin read the same record as "Lieutenant John Greene of Newport. LaMance claims to have researched many original records. Bates probably also read the original record and read "Lieut. John Greene of Newport. " We have an obvious conflict and an important one that demands that anyone trying to identify this Lieut. John Greene also read the original record and make his own determination of whether it says "New York" or "Newport. " However, Bates subsequent evidence when the property was later sold supports her reading of "Newport. " John Greene of Newport On 26 Oct 1670 John Greene(, Jr. of Newport) and Edward Greenman petitioned the General Assembly that the estate of Thomas Flounders, lately executed for the murder of Walter House at Kingstown, after the expenses for the execution were paid might go to his late wife Sarah (Greene) and her child. Lieutenant John Greene of Newport is mentioned in the Newport town records in 1679, 1681, 1682/3, 1683 and 1684. On 14 May 1685, Lieutenant John Greene of Newport drew house lot and farm in East Greenwich. In 1686/7 he is back in the Newport records. 21 May 1690 he sells his town lot in East Greenwich and disappears from Rhode Island records. He died at Seekonk, Massachusetts 3 Sep 1694 and his will is proved in Taunton. Analysis: John Greene does not appear to have remained in East Greenwich very long. Austin says that "he never have settled at East Greenwich probably, but doubtless disposed of his land there, as did so many other Newport owners. " He may have been a resident 14 May 1685 when he was made a townman or freeman of East Greenwich. But he appears to have been back in Newport in 1686/8 (approximately 18 months later). The other possibility is that he never left Newport and John Greene of New York drew the house and lot in East Greenwich in 1685. John and Abigail Greene Arnold (Vital Records of Rhode Island) lists the birth of John and Abigail Greene's three oldest children: James, John, and Jane, in the Birth Certificates of East Greenwich between 1685 and 1690. But this is the same period that Lieutenant John Greene of Newport is being reported in the Newport records. Walter and Ella Greene report that John Greene leased land in East Greenwich from David Shippee in 1685. Is this the same person as Lieutenant John Greene of Newport? Analysis: At first blush the Birth Certificates of John and Abigail Greene's three oldest children in East Greenwich seem to indicate that they were residents from 1685 to 1690/1. However, the early birth entries were usually entered in batches, not sequentially. Arnold does not indicate when these entries were made, but they appear on one page of the record (1-10). If they were entered in a batch (all at one time), then the entry must have been made in 1690/1 or later. If this is the case, then we can only postulate residence in East Greenwich at the time of entry in 1690/1, not between 1685 and 1690/1 and the possibility of residence earlier. Unless the entry specifically says

Rebecca. 1 May 1690. John Greene of Newport sold to Giles Pearce the ten acre house lot that Lieut. John Greene of Newport had drawn in 1685 Lieut. John Greene of Newport's farm lot was sold 11 Feb 1707/8 by Thomas Langford and wife Sarah of East Greenwich to Zachariah Jenkins of Barnstable. No deed has been found that explains how this farm came into the possession of Thomas Langford. A Thomas Langford was one of the beneficiaries named in the will of John Greene of Newport. This will dated 4 Sep 1694 is recorded at Taunton Massachusetts, USA. Bates says that Lieut. John Greene of Newport, was born probably about 1640. He married Abigail Jefferay, daughter of William and Mary (Gould) Jefferay of Newport. Lieutenant John died suddenly at Seekonk, Massachusetts, USA, 4 Sep 1694. He was admitted a freeman of Newport in 1668. Analysis: Even though John Greene, Jr. was one of the original Fones purchasers and signer of the 1672 lease, he was not a resident and hence may have been ineligible to draw his town lot and farm. Where was he? Wandering around New York as LaMance says or in Newport? Hulling probably read the East Greenwich records and read "Lieut. John Greene of New York." Arnold read the same record as "Lieutenant John Greene of Newport. LaMance claims to have researched many original records. Bates probably also read the original record and read "Lieut. John Greene of Newport." We have an obvious conflict and an important one, that demands that anyone trying to identify this Lieut. John Greene also read the original record and make his own determination of whether it says "New York" or "Newport." However, Bates subsequent evidence when the property was later sold supports her reading of "Newport." John Greene of Newport On 26 Oct 1676 John Greene, Jr. of Newport and Edward Greenman petitioned the General Assembly that the estate of Thomas Flounders, lately executed for the murder of Walter House at Kingstown, after the expenses for the execution were paid might go to his late wife Sarah (Greene) and her child. Lieutenant John Greene of Newport is mentioned in the Newport town records in 1679, 1681, 1682/3, 1683 and 1684. On 14 May 1685, Lieutenant John Greene of Newport drew house lot and farm in East Greenwich. In 1686/7 he is back in the Newport records. 21 May 1690 he sells his town lot in East Greenwich and disappears from Rhode Island records. He died at Seekonk, Massachusetts 4 Sep 1694 and his will is proved in Taunton. Analysis: John Greene does not appear to have remained in East Greenwich very long. Arnold says that "he never to have settled at East Greenwich probably, but doubtless disposed of his land there, as did so many other Newport owners." He may have been a resident 14 May 1685 when he was made a freeman or Inhabitant of East Greenwich. But he appears to have been back in Newport in 1686/7 (approximately 18 months later). The other possibility is that he never left Newport and John Greene of New York drew the house and lot in East Greenwich in 1685. John and Abigail Greene Arnold's Vital Records of Rhode Island) lists the birth of John and Abigail Greene's three eldest children: James, John, and Jane, in the Birth Certificates of East Greenwich between 1683 and 1690, but this is the same period that Lieutenant John Greene of Newport is being reported in the Newport records. Walter and Ella Greene report that John Greene bought land in East Greenwich from David Shippee in 1685. Is this the same person as Lieutenant John Greene of Newport? Analysis: At first blush the Birth Certificates of John and Abigail Greene's three eldest children in East Greenwich seem to indicate that they were resident from 1683 to 1690?. However, the early birth entries were usually entered in batches not sequentially. Arnold does not indicate when these entries were made, but they appear on one page of the record (1-101). If they were entered in a batch (all at one time), then the entry must have been made in 1690(?) or later. If this is the case, then we can only postulate residence in East Greenwich at the time of entry in 1690(?) not between 1685 and 1690(?) and the possibility of residence earlier. Unless the entry specifically says the children were all born in East Greenwich, the mere recording of their births in East Greenwich is not proof of the place of their birth. Oftentimes, in the early Rhode Island records when families moved they might have recorded the births of children with the clerk in the new town where they lived, even though the children were born elsewhere. Again, reference to the original record needs to be made to determine when these entries were made. Walter and Ella Greene do not indicate if there is any identifying terms used to indicate which John Greene leased this land. Perhaps, both two different John Greene's were living in East Greenwich at this time: Lieut. John Greene of Newport and another John Greene (perhaps the one who married Abigail). The original record needs to be read for clues to identify this John Greene, lessee. Qualifications of Bates Walter and Ella Greene have this to say about Bates. She "searched original records in Rhode Island and had access to extensive notes of George Sears Greene. The library of the Rhode Island Historical Society at Providence has on file her scrapbooks (over a hundred bound volumes) in which she pasted copies of documents, letters, and miscellaneous genealogical data. Every name in these many volumes has been carefully indexed on cards which are filed alphabetically. One must conclude she was a thorough and systematic searcher. Using the records of land transactions to prove her arguments, Bates contends that the man referred to as John Greene of Kingstown (Quidnessett) and the man referred to as John Greene of Newport were one and the same person. " Analysis: This description by Walter and Ella Greene suggests that Mrs. Bates' conclusions need to be carefully considered. In fact, Walter and Ella Greene write, "I believe this bears further investigation by those whose family lines are directly affected. " LaMance says, "He must have been near man's estate, in 1664, when in official records John of Quidnessett is styled John Greene, Senior. " [However, note that at that time the designations "Senior" and "Junior" did not necessarily refer to father/son, but could also mean two men in the same community with the same name: Senior referring to the older of the two, and Junior to the younger. Page 1: John Greene of Quidnessett (or Kingstown) may have resided at or near London, possibly at Enfield (he names a daughter Enfield). He is known to have been associated with Richard Smith at a trading post in Quidnessett as early as 1637. Page 1: John Greene of Newport has been considered to be a separate line. In 1918, Louise Prosser Bates, after an extensive search of land and vital records, published in a paper entitled, "The Real Story," her conclusions that John Greene of Newport and John Greene of Quidnessett were one and the same person. This premise appears to be substantiated by the work of Norma Greene, who researched the Greene family which settled in Monmouth, N. J. I believe this bears further investigation by those whose family lines are directly affected. Page 11: Parish records in Gillingham [England] do not begin until 1560. The Parish records of births, marriages, and deaths, plus the copies of wills, reveal family connections. They document that Surgeon John Greene of Salisbury was the grandson of Richard Greene, of Bowridge Hill; further, that this John Greene married Joan Tattershall and by her had children in England. Page 12: In 1964, at the time we published our first Greene family history, "The Greene Family of St. Albans, Vermont," we were fairly confident in the assertion that John Greene of Quidnessett also was a descendant of the Knightly Family of Greene. In retracing the authority for this assumption in various family histories, it becomes apparent that all of them stem from one source, the book authored by Lora LaMance. . . . One can only wish that she had printed the specific documentation - or train of circumstantial evidence - which led her to the assumption that John Greene of Quidnessett was a descendant of Robert Greene, gentleman, of Bowridge Hill. So far as I have been able to ascertain there exist no letters, journal entries, or other documents to verify this claim. Other researchers tracing the line of John Greene of Quidnessett have presented other traditions about this man which, unfortunately, are not compatible one with the other. The result is a number of different pieces of a puzzle which do not fit together properly to produce a clear picture. Pages 27-29: Governor Winthrop's account from which "Beggarly," the name of John Greene's wife is derived is quoted. Walter and Ella Greene comment: "The preceding narration mentions 'one Greene who married the wife of one Beggarly. ' She was also known as Alice Daniell, which caused confusion among earlier genealogists who stated that the second wife of John Greene of Warwick was Alice Daniell and that Mrs. Beggarly therefore must have been the wife of John Greene of Quidnessett - impossible for there was just one such person. " William B. Trask in New England Historical and Genealogical Register, XXXV:318-320 identifies Mrs. Daniell as Mrs. Beggarly and as wife of John Greene of Warwick. Page 32: John Greene, b 5 [sic] June 1651; d betw 1681-6; s. p. He was the son of John and Anne (Almy) Greene and the grandson of John and Joanne (Tattershall) Greene, surgeon, of Warwick. Pages 43ff. : John Greene of Quidnessett. Beyond. . . [the affidavit executed by John Greene of Q], little is known for certain but much has been speculated. There is no certainty as to when or from where he sailed for New England. The identity of his wife is known only through his will, which mentions only her given name, Joan; the text of the will itself has not been found. . . Whether Joan was his first and only wife is not known. Whether she was the mother of all of his children is not known; although there are records which justify the assumption that she was the mother of at least the three youngest children. Was John Greene of Quidnessett and the man referred to as John Greene of Newport one and the same person? LaMance, in 1904, wrote "no" and her book has been used as the authority by many of the later writers about his family. On the other hand, in 1918, Louise Prosser Bates wrote "yes" and presented compelling arguments based upon land records to substantiate her claim. When the activities and children attributed to John Greene of Quidnessett are combined with those attributed to John Greene of Newport, (as shown in Austin) there appear to be no conflicts; they do merge into one picture. (Page 44). In the search for the ancestors of John Greene of Quidnessett, perhaps the most disturbing tradition is that which suggests his true name may have been Clark and that he may not have been a Greene at all! This tradition is associated with John of Coventry, Rhode Island, who married Abigail Wardwell. Two genealogies connect the tradition with John Greene of Quidnessett in the belief that John of Coventry was his son. (Page 45). . . . when reference was made to "Clark Greene families" these were references to families in which the father had been named Clark because of contact with contemporary families with the surname Clark rather than in memory of a vague tradition of a fugitive ancestor. (Page 46). Lora LaMance wrote that John Greene had fled England to escape the wrath of Henry VII. In her account the surname Clarke is assumed as an alias, and the true surname is Greene. She recounts a fascinating tale. I shall not reproduce it here as it is long in the telling and short on facts which can be substantiated. It can be found on pages 34-5 of her book. (Page 46). After examining the various traditions, I regretfully conclude that nothing positively is known of the parentage and previous history of John Greene of Quidnessett, prior to 1636. (Page 47). Combining the information from several genealogies, it appears that there were ten children (Pages 52-59): Edward, the eldest son, b ca 1643; m Mary Tibbetts. Daniel, b ca 1647; m 16 June 1689 Rebecca Barrow at Newport. Henry, b bef 1650; d ca 1694; m 20 Oct 1670 Sarah Greenman. . John. There are conflicting dates and facts surrounding the John Greenes of the second and third generations, which give rise to the speculations that indeed there may be a third immigrant line which never has been successfully traced. For example, there is a record of Mary Jefferay (born in 1642 who married "John Green of N. " This couple has no place in the genealogical charts of either John Greene of Warwick or John Greene of Quidnessett. . . . He is recorded as owning land with his father, in 1666, in Quidnessett (again the 1651 birth date becomes illogical). He married about or before 1685. Ray Greene Huling, Narragansett Historical Register, Vol II and III. (1883-1884). He wrote of three John Greenes: John of Warwick, John of Quidnesset Neck in of the town of North Kingstown, and John of Newport. In 1666 the proprietors of the northern part of Quidnesset neck made a division of their lands, previously, so far as appears, unsurveyed. On a plat which purports to indicate the boundaries of each piece of property in that region in that year, a tract of one hundred and fifty-one acres is assigned to "John Greene and Son. " [This does not give the name of the "son" and if John (Jr.) was born in 1651, the son mentioned here would seem to be a son older than John (Jr.)] On 1 Jan 1671-2, a John Greene with John Fones,. . ., bought of the Indians a large tract since known as the Devil's Foot or Fones's Purchase;. . . From the fact that all these original purchasers were Quidnesset men, excepting Fones, who lived some three miles west in Narragansett, it may be fairly inferred that their fellow proprietor, John Greene, was the Quidnesset John. As an argument to the contrary, there is a record in East Greenwich, of the admission as a freeman in the same year, 1685, and on the same day, Mary 14, as Capt. John Fones, of a Lieut. John Greene, of New York, concerning whose origin nothing more is known, but who may have been the partner of Fones in the above purchase. In March 1681-2. . . the land next north of James Greene's estate [on Allen's Harbor] was owned by a John Greene, presumably the son of the elder John, who three years later was a resident of East Greenwich. His wife, in 1682, was named Joan. . . neither her parentage nor any dates of birth, marriage or death have survived. He lists the following children: John, b 16 [sic] June 1651; d 6 Oct 1721; m Abigail D. James, d prob 1728; m probably (1) Elizabeth, (2) Ann. Daniel, d 1730; m Rebecca Barrow. Edward, (prob); m Mary Tibbits. Benjamin, (prob), d 1718-9; m Humility. There were in this region, in 1671, a Henry Greene, who afterward removed to "New Garsay," and in 1674, a Samuel Greene. Their relation to the above family is not apparent. Louise Prosser Bates, "John Greene of Newport and Narragansett" from Rhode Island Historical Society Collections, Vol XI and XII, reprinted Genealogies of Rhode Island Families From Rhode Island Periodicals, (Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1983), Vol I, p 432-456. She concludes that John Greene of Newport and John Greene of Quidnessett are the same person. This is based on deeds referring at one time to John Greene of Newport and to the same person later as John Greene, sr., of Narragansett. [But note also that many of the references given by Austin to John Greene of Newport, Mrs. Bates attributes to Lieut. John2 Greene of Newport, who she says is the son of John Greene of Quidnessett.] John Greene and John Greene, Jr. were among the signers of a letter on 27 June 1679 written with respect to the Fones' Purchase. Edward Greene sold both lots belonging to John Greene, sr. and in the deeds states that they descended to him by will of his father, John Greene, deceased (East Greenwich Deeds. John Greene, Jr., called at the time Lieut. John Greene of Newport, had a special meeting of the townsmen of East Greenwich called, May 14, 1685, when as a Fones purchaser he was recognized as a townsman and was allowed to draw his lot and farm. May 1, 1690, John Greene of Newport sold the ten acre lot acquired above. John Greene of Quidnessett died before 25 Sep 1685. His children: Lieut. argument is that Lieut. John Greene admitted a freeman in East Greenwich in 1685 is said to be "of Newport. " Prof. Huling said he was "of New York. " I believe that Walter and Ella Greene present arguments that correctly identify the John Greene who married the widow Beggarly as John Greene, surgeon, of Warwick. We do not know the surname of Joan, the wife of John Greene of Quidnessett. The lists of the children of John Greene of Quidnessett range from five to ten. Austin gives a list of five sons and these are probably the ones about which the most certainty exists (except for the correct identity of John2). Walter and Ella Greene list ten, seemingly not wanting to leave any possibilities out. I list eight in my book, Ancestors and Descendants of William Browning Greene and Mary Hoxsie Lewis with Allied Families. Beside the five listed by Austin, I have added Sarah, Henry and Robert. If you have stuck with me this long on this page, you may be interested in reading what I wrote in my book about John Greene of Quidnessett. I include this page without noting my references or footnotes. They are, however, based for the most part on the information summarized above. The identity of John Greene, Jr., son of John Greene of Quidnesset. is disputed. I have written a page setting forth the positions and arguments of various writers.

Children of John Greene and Joan Beggarly are:

3 i. Enfield[7] Greene[1].

4 ii. Welthian Greene[1].

5 iii. Edward Greene[2], born 1643 He married Mary Tibbetts[2]

+ 6 iv. John Robert Greene, born 06 Jun 1651 in East Greenwich, Kent, Rhode Island, USA; died 06 Oct 1729 in Coventry, Kent, Rhode Island, USA.

7 v. Daniel Greene[2], born 1647; died Bet. 1729 - 1730 in North Kingstown, Washington, Rhode Island, USA. He married Rebecca Barrow[2] 16 Jul 1689 in Newport, Rhode Island, USA

8 vi. Henry Greene[3], born Bef. 1650 in Newport, Rhode Island, USA[4]; died 1694[4]. He married Sarah Greenman[4] Bef. 20 Oct 1670 in Portsmouth, Rhode Island, USA[4]

More about Henry Greene:
Property: about 1680, 280 Arces, Monmouth, New Jersey, USA[4]

9 vii. Robert Greene[4], born 1653

Notes for Robert Greene:
He was admitted a freeman in 1674 and may have moved to either New Jersey, USA or Virginia. He is not mentioned by Bates.

10 viii. James Greene[5], born 1655[6] He married (1) Elizabeth Jenkins[6] He married (2) Ann[6]

11 ix. Benjamin Greene[6], born 1665 He married Humility Coggeshall[6]

12 x. Sarah Greene[7], born 1668 She married Thomas Founders[8]; died 26 Oct 1670.

Notes for Thomas Founders:
In an argument over "some language," Thomas hit Walter House, causing his death. Narragansett Historical Register says, "The place where Thomas Flounders (or Flanders) killed Walter House is believed to have been between Thomas Holloway's house and Jeremiah Carpenter's on the north side of the road and a little east of the town house. It is far more likely to have taken place somewhere between Richard Smith's house and the Devil's Foot. " He was tried for murder and hung on 26 Oct 1670. They had one child.

6. She was born 27 Oct 1665 in Ipswich, Essex, Massachusetts, USA[9], and died 19 Oct 1739 in East Greenwich, Kent, Rhode Island, USA[9].

Notes for John Robert Greene:
John: There are conflicting dates and facts surrounding the John Greenes of the second and third generations, which give rise to my speculations that indeed there may be a third immigrant line which never has been successfully traced. For example, there is a record of Mary Jefferay Dixon in 1642 who married "John Greene of ....". This couple has no place in the genealogical charts of either John Greene of Warwick, or John Greene of Quidnessett. ... He is recorded as owning land with his father, in 1666, at Quidnessett (again the 1633 birth date becomes illogical). He married about or before 1685. Some records give his wife's name as Abigail D. ... However, it is generally agreed that she was Abigail Wardwell ... In 1683 ... as John Greene, Jr., he was awarded land as a partner in the Fones Purchase. ... He remained in East Greenwich until 1698 ... About 1700, he removed to Coventry where he had purchased a large tract of forest land. ... He died 6 Oct. 1729, and was buried in the Old Field Cemetery, which he had set aside on his land as a family burying ground. His will made Oct. 2, 1729, was proved Oct. 21, of the same year.

My conclusions: The ancestry of John Greene of Quidnessett is unknown. Most of the information written is derived from the article written by Ray Greene Huling in 1883 or the book written by Lora S. Walter and Ella Greene do not put forth any discussion to refute Mrs. Bates conclusions. Therefore, I conclude that the ancestry of John Greene who married Abigail Wardwell is in doubt and John Greene of Quidnessett may not be his father. Note, however, part of Mrs. Bates' and of the birth of four more children. Subsequently we find upon the records of Wales the birth of two more children of Robert and Sarah Greene. We must therefore accept the conclusion that Robert Greene, after marrying and residing in Wales for a time, removed to Tolland, Ct., where he remained for several years, and then returned to his old homestead in Wales, where he had two other children born, and where he finally died.

A few years ago, we visited the locality of this old homestead in company with Daniel Gardner Greene, of Monson, from whom we obtained much valuable information. The farm was partly in Monson and partly in Wales, the line running through the house, and it is said that at one time there was a lively contest to decide in which of the towns the family lived. The old house disappeared long ago, but there remains abundant evidence of its location.

The children of Robert and Sarah were:

Ruth, born in Wales, Mass., Feb. 14, 1745.
Joel, born in Wales, Mass., May 5, 1748.
Lydia, born in Wales, Mass., March 6, 1750; died in Tolland, Ct., July 5, 1851.
Lydia, born in Tolland, Ct., July 28, 1751.
Amos, born in Tolland, Ct., June 22, 1753.
Nathan, born in Tolland, Ct., March 28, 1755.
Eunice, born in Tolland, Ct., Feb. 14, 1757; died in Wales, 1822.
Solmon, born in Wales, Mass., March 12, 1766.
Reuben, born in Wales, Mass., May 24, 1769.

1699. Ephraim Green, son of the aforesaid testator, d. Nov. 28, 1694, probably unmarried. Of John Green, b. Jan. 26, 1658–9, brother of Ephraim, we have no further account.

FIRST GENERATION.

THOMAS GREEN[E]* was born in England, probably abt. 1606. There are reasons for supposing that he came from Leicestershire, but no proof of the fact. The time of his arrival in this country is also uncertain. The first record in which his name appears, so as to identify him, is 1653, when his youngest daughter, Dorcas, was born. Yet he doubtless came many years before, probably 1635 or 1636. We are inclined to the opinion that he lived in Ipswich till 1649 or 1650, and then removed to Malden. He certainly lived in Malden as early as Oct. 28, 1651, when his wife Elizabeth, and dau. bearing the same name, signed a petition to the General Court.‡

He had a farm of 63 acres in the north part of Malden, in that part which is now the town of Melrose. A part of his farm remains to this day in the possession of his descendants. See pp. 44, 58.

He was selectman of Malden in 1658, and was several times on the grand jury of the County of Middlesex. As there were two other Thomas Greens in the town, he is known on the records as Thomas Green, senior; his son being junior, and the other Thomas left without any suffix.

He m. 1, ELIZABETH ——, who was doubtless the mother of all his children, and who d. Aug. 22, 1658. 2, FRANCES COOK, Sept. 5, 1659. She was then the widow of Richard Cook, who d. October 14, 1658; and had previously been the widow of Isaac Wheeler. She was b. in 1608, and had children by both her former husbands.

He d. Dec. 19, 1667. His Will, dated Nov. 12, 1667; proved Jan. 15, 1667–8; recorded Midd. Prob., 5 : 297, mentions no wife, but makes bequests to his "eldest son" Thomas, sons John, William, Henry, Samuel, and daughters Elizabeth, Mary, Hannah, Martha, and Dorcas. Sons William and Henry were appointed executors. John Waite, John Lynde, witnesses. Inventory, Jan. 10, 1667–8; amount, £285.18.2.

The children of Thomas Green, were—

2. Elizabeth,^{2} prob. b. in England abt. 1628, one of the signers of the petition to Gen. Court in 1651. Nothing further is known of her.
3. †Thomas,^{2} prob. b. in England abt. 1630; m. Rebecca Hills abt. 1653.
4. †John,^{2} b. (prob. in Eng.) 1632; m. Sarah Wheeler, Dec. 18, 1660.
5. Mary,^{2} prob. b. in Eng. abt. 1633; m. before 1656, Capt. John Waite, a prominent citizen; selectman 1658, 1678, 1679 and four following years; representative 1666–1684.
6. †William,^{2} b. ——, 1635; m. 1, Elizabeth Wheeler. 2, Isabel (Farmer) Blood.
7. †Henry,^{2} b. ——, 1638; m. Esther Hasse, Jan. 11, 1671–2.
8. †Samuel,^{2} b. March, 1645; m. 1, Mary Cook, 1666. 2, Susanna ——.
9. Hannah,^{2} b. about 1647; m. Joseph Richardson, of Woburn, Nov. 5, 1666. She d. May 20, 1721. For her posterity, see "Vinton Memorial."
10. Martha,^{2} b. about 1650.
11. Dorcas,^{2} b. in Malden, May 1, 1653; m. Jan. 11, 1671–2, James Barrett,^{2} of Malden, b. April 6, 1644. She d. 1682. James d. 1694. Their children, intermarrying with the Sargents, &c., have numerous descendants.

Some of the above were doubtless born in England; how many is unknown.

* In many, perhaps most of the earliest records, the name was spelled with the final e. But the great majority of the descendants of Thomas Greene^1 have not used the final vowel; which will therefore be omitted, except in recording the families descended from Ebenezer Greene of Belchertown, and one or two others, by whom it was assumed about 1825, in the belief that it conformed to the ancient orthography.

‡ This petition was signed by 36 females of Malden, praying the General Court to excuse some errors and failings of Rev. Marmaduke Matthews, first minister of Malden, who had fallen under the censure of that honorable body. Three Elizabeth Greens were among the signers; the third being wife of James Green.^{1} See Introductory paragraphs, page 7. [Bi-Centennial Book of Malden, p. 140.

SECOND GENERATION.

THOMAS GREEN,[2] son of the preceding; prob. b. in Eng. about 1630; m. abt. 1653, REBECCA HILLS,[2] dau. of JOSEPH HILLS,[1] then of Malden, afterwards of Newbury, by his first wife, Rose Dunster, sister of President Dunster.*) error .

He resided in Malden, was a farmer, and was admitted freeman May 31, 1670. He d. Feb. 13, 1671–2, having made his Will on the day of his death; which Will, proved April 2, 1672, and recorded Midd. Prob., 4 : 116, gives to wife Rebecca the third part of his estate; the remainder to be equally divided among his children Rebecca, Hannah, Thomas, and Samuel, who were then all under age. Wife Rebecca, Exx. His brother John Green and brother Wayte, overseers. Inventory, £164. 10; dated March 8, 1671–2.

His widow, Rebecca, d. June 6, 1674.

The children of Thomas and Rebecca (Hills) Green, were—

12. Rebecca,[3] b. 1654; m. 1674, Thomas Newell of Lynn. He was appointed administrator, "in behalf of his wife and the other children," of the estate of the widow Rebecca Green, his wife's mother, March 4, 1674–5. Joseph Hills of Newbury, conveyed, Nov. 9, 1674, to the aforesaid Thomas Newell and Rebecca his wife, two parcels of land, containing ten acres, and "sometimes in the occupation of Thomas Green;" in consideration of payments to be made to Hannah (sister of the grantee's wife) and to Samuel (her brother) when they should become of age. Furthermore, Samuel Green, last mentioned, was to be "brought up" by the said Newell. In this deed, Joseph Hills calls himself "father of Rebecca, the wife of Thomas Green, late of Maulden." [Midd. Deeds, 8 : 543–4–5.] The same land was conveyed, April 24, 1690, by the said Thomas Newell "of Malden," to the said Samuel Green. [Midd. Deeds, 12 : 449.] Mrs. Rebecca Newell d. May 25, 1726, æ. 73. [Gravestone in Malden.]
13. Thomas,[3] b. F[illegible] 1655–6; d. April 15, 1674. As he is mentioned in his father's Will but not in the settlement of his father's estate, 1675, nor in the Will of his grandfather, Joseph Hills, 1687, while Rebecca, Hannah, and Samuel are mentioned, he must have died before those latter transactions.
14. Hannah,[3] b. Oct. 16, 1658; d. March 25, 1659.
15. Hannah,[3] b. Feb. 24, 1659–60; m. Aug. 26, 1677, JOHN VINTON[2] of Malden, afterwards of Woburn. The ancestor of a very numerous posterity, viz., of nearly all registered in the VINTON MEMORIAL. She is mentioned in the Will of Joseph Hills, 1687, as his grand dau. Hannah Vinton.
16. †Samuel,[3] b. Oct. 5, 1670; m. Elizabeth Upham about 1692.

Dea. JOHN GREEN,[2] son of Thomas Green,[1] b. (prob. in England) 1632; m. in Malden, Dec. 18, 1660, SARAH WHEELER, b. June, 1643, dau. of Isaac Wheeler, whose wife Frances afterwards m. Richard Cook, and after that m. John Green's father, Thomas Green, sen.

He was a respectable and influential citizen of Malden; freeman, Oct. 24, 1668; captain of a military company, and for many years deacon of the church. He was selectman nineteen years between 1678 and 1701, and represented the town in the General Court 1692–3–4–6.

He d. Oct. 16, 1707, a. 75. [Gravestone.] This proves that he was b. in 1632. His Will is dated the previous day, Oct. 15, 1707; proved Nov. 10, 1707; recorded Midd. Prob., 11 : 177. After making bequests to wife Sarah, dau. Sarah Sprague, and gr. dau. Mehitable Sprague, (then under 18) he gives the rest of his estate to his son John, who is made executor.

* Rebecca Hills signed, 1651, the petition referred to on page 395, note. Her first child was b. 1654. She must have been married in the interval.

His widow, Sarah, d. Dec. 1, 1717, a. 74 y. 6 mo. [Gravestone.] Whence it appears that she was b. May or June 1643. Their children were—

17. Sarah,[3] b. Sept. 1662; d. young.
18. Mary,[3] b. Dec. 1668; prob. d. young; not mentioned in father's Will.
19. John,[3] b. April 1670; d. young.
20. †John,[3] b. March 21, 1673–4; m. his cousin Mary Green. [39.]
21. Sarah,[3] b. Jan. 14, 1676–7; m. Samuel Sprague; had dau. Mehitable, b. 1694.

Capt. WILLIAM GREEN,[2] third son of Thomas Green, sen., b. in 1635, as appears from his age at several times when he gave testimony, and from his age as marked on his gravestone. He m. 1, Elizabeth Wheeler, dau. of Isaac Wheeler, and sister of his brother John's wife.* They were m. by Capt. Marshall, Sept. 13, 1659, according to Midd. Records; but March 13, 1659–60, according to Malden Records; both being copies of a perished original.

After the death of Elizabeth, he m. 2, Feb. 6, 1694–5, Isabel Blood, b. 1652, widow of James Blood of Concord, and formerly widow of David Wyman[2] of Woburn, to whom she was m. April 27, 1675, and by whom she had two children, David,[3] and Isabel,[3] the last being b. July 5, 1677. Her maiden name was Isabel Farmer, from Ansley in England. She survived her third husband, Capt. Green, more than thirty years, dying March 3, 1736–7, a. 85.

He was made freeman Oct. 24, 1668; was a farmer; member of the church in Malden; captain of a military company; selectman 1678, 1683, 1702. He owned one half of the farm in Malden, which had been owned by his father Thomas Green, and sold it to his brother Samuel, Oct. 1670; the other half being owned by his brother Henry. [Midd. Deeds, 4 : 50.] His brother John owned land on the north of it.

He d. Dec. 30, 1705, a. 70. [Gravestone.] His Will, dated Dec. 14, 1705; proved Jan. 21, 1705–6: recorded Midd. Prob., 11 : 84; leaves his personal property in part to wife Isabel, grandsons William Green, Benjamin Green, Nathaniel Green, all three under 21 years of age; and dau. Sarah Webb; the real estate and part of the personal being left to sons Isaac and John Green, who are made joint executors.

The children of William and Elizabeth Green, were—

22. †William,[3] b. 1661; m. about 1682, Elizabeth Hills.
23. †Isaac,[3] b. ———; m. Sarah ———.
24. John,[3] b. Oct. 1667; seems to have d. young.
25. Elizabeth,[3] b. Nov. 1668; prob. d. early; not mentioned in father's Will.
26. Sarah,[3] b. May 11, 1671; m. ——— Webb.
27. †John,[3] b. about 1672; m. 1699, Isabel Wyman.

Lieut. HENRY GREEN,[2] fourth son of Thomas Green, sen., b. 1638, probably in this country. His age is deduced from his gravestone, and from his testimony in court.

He m. Jan. 11, 1671–2, Esther Hasse, b. 1649 or 1650, a name not known at present, unless it be changed to Hussey or Hersey.

He resided in Malden, where he was selectman thirteen years between 1682 and 1714; representative 1689, 1694, 1703, 1704. He has a numerous posterity. He d. Sept. 19, 1717, "a. 78 years and 8 mos." [Gravestone.

His Will is dated Jan. 23, 1704–5; proved Sept. 30, 1717; recorded Midd. Prob., 14 : 559. He leaves property to wife Esther; to son Henry, who has land of the testator in possession in Charlestown; to son Joseph, son Daniel (gives him land in Charlestown [prob. what is now Stoneham] and elsewhere); son Jacob, (who has the homestead); dau. Esther Flagg, and two other daus.,

* Richard Cook left property by Will, Sept. 25, 1658, to Elizabeth and Sarah Wheeler, his wife's daughters by her first husband, Isaac Wheeler; these must be the same.

Dorcas and Lydia. His four sons, Henry, Joseph, Daniel and Jacob, are exec., notwithstanding that Jacob is under age. Witnesses, William Green [6], Jonathan Green [40], Samuel Sprague.

His widow Esther survived him thirty years. The latter part of her life was spent in Stoneham, probably with her son Daniel. She d. there, Feb. 26, 1747–8, a. 98. [Gravestone.] Her Will, dated May 22, 1740; proved July 12, 1748; recorded Midd. Prob., 25 : 344; gives wearing apparel to her three daus., Esther Flagg, Dorcas Wiley, and Lydia Lynde; divides her estate to son Henry Green and his children; dau. Esther Flagg and her children; son Joseph Green's children; son Daniel Green and his children; dau. Dorcas Wyle [Wiley] and her children; dau. 8.

SAMUEL GREEN,^{2} youngest son of Thomas Green,^{1} b. March, 1645. The date of his birth is inferred from his age as marked on his gravestone. He m. 1, 1666, MARY COOK, dau. of Richard Cook, second husband of Frances, whose third husband was Thomas Green, sen., father of our Samuel.^{2} She d. Nov. 24, 1715. 2, SUSANNA ——, who survived him. He has a numerous posterity.

He resided in Malden; and appears as "Samuel Green, sen.," on the records, to distinguish him from three other Samuel Greens, then in Malden, viz.: his son Samuel, his nephew Samuel [16], and his son-in-law Samuel,^{3} son of John,^{2} son of James,^{1} of another family. In Oct. 1670, he purchased of his brother William, one half of his father's farm, and from that time occupied "the old mansion house." Bought the other half of his brother Henry, June 13, 1684. [Midd. Deeds, 4 : 50, and 9 : 141.

He lived in Malden; and d. March 21, 1690-1. [Midd. Prob. Records.] There is a tradition in the family that he was killed at Dunstable, [now Nashua] by the Indians. This is not improbable; but no record has been found to confirm it.

ISAAC GREEN,³ (William,² Thomas,¹) brother of the preceding, born in Malden about 1663; m. Sarah ——. (·⌣)

He resided in Malden certainly till 1708. We have found no record of any public office borne by him, and no record of his death; nor has any record touching him met our eye later than Nov. 23, 170[illegible] when he and his brother John, as executors of their father's Will, gave to their nephew Benjamin Green,⁴ [59] who had just come of age, a deed of 5 acres and 100 poles of land, on account of a legacy granted him by his (Benjamin's) grandfather, Capt. William Green. [Midd. Deeds, 16 : 595.] His children, as recorded, were—

62. William,⁴ b. in Malden, Nov. 20, 1696. (·⌣)

JOHN GREEN,³ (William,² Thomas,¹) brother of the preceding, b. 1672, as we infer from his gravestone; m. 1699, Isabel Wyman, b. July 5, 1677, dau. of his father's second wife Isabel, by her first husband David Wyman² of Woburn, who d. of smallpox 1678. David was b. in Woburn, April 7, 1654, son of Lieut. JOHN WYMAN,¹ one of the original settlers of Woburn in 1642.*

The husband of Isabel Wyman lived in the extreme east part of Stoneham, on the county road from Stoneham to Lynn, and near the intersection of the road leading from Malden to Reading, a little west of the last-named road. The locality is now included in the present town of Melrose; and is about a quarter of a mile east of the Stoneham R. R. Depot. We are thus particular, because from the Will of John Green, it appears that the farm once belonged to his grandfather. He was selectman of Stoneham 1735, and was a member of the church in that town. He d. Aug. 29, 1736, a. 64. [Gravestone in Malden.] In his Will, dated June 24, 1736; proved Oct. 11, 1736; Midd. Prob., 20 : 303; he calls himself "of Stoneham"; mentions wife Isabel, son John, who has "my dwelling-house and barn, and the land adjoining, that lyeth on the west side of the country road that leadeth from Malden to Reading, that was my grandfather's;" besides several other lots. Son Jonah has "all my land on the east side of the country road" aforesaid; and other lots. Gives his dau., Isabel Green, £250; the currency being then depreciated to one-fourth of its original value. Sons John and Jonah, executors.

His widow Isabel d. Aug. 9, 1765, a. 88, surviving her husband twenty-nine years. In her Will, dated Feb. 19, 1762; proved Sept. 3, 1765; recorded Midd. Prob., 29 : 71; she calls herself "of Malden," and gives son John, dau. Isabel Hay, son Jonas, and gr. dau. Elizabeth Green, her estate. Witnesses, Jonathan Green, [117] Thomas Green, [215] William Green, jr. [223].

liam Green certain parcels of land, once belonging to his mother, Elizabeth Green, last the wife of John Lynde, deceased, intestate, and calls Mehetable Lynde his (William's) sister. Another bond calls Joanna Lynde his sister: and still another calls Dorothy Lynde his sister.

These quotations are made to substantiate the text, and to invalidate an unfounded tradition that Elizabeth (Hills) Green, widow of William Green³ in the text, after his death m. Capt. Samuel Green³ [16] of Leicester.

* See note *, on p. 13.

After the foregoing was not only "in type," but actually printed, a letter was received from the town clerk of Berwick, Me., stating that he had searched the old records of that town and found that Benjamin Green[4] and Christian Main were m. at Berwick, Sept. 9, 1713. He could find nothing further of them or their family.

Capt. NATHANIEL GREEN,[4] (William,[3] William,[2] Thomas,[1]) brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, Sept. 28, 1689; m. 1, in Reading, by "Justis" Brown,* April 21, 1713, to ELIZABETH SPRAGUE, dau. of Samuel and Sarah Sprague of Malden, and sister of his brother William's wife. 2, in 1755, MARY STOCKWELL, presumed to be of Sutton. They were published Dec. 14, 1755.

He lived at "Charlestown-End," [incorp. 1725 as Stoneham] about eight years, from 1715 to 1723, doubtless on the land purchased in 1712, by himself and his brother Benjamin, of Joseph Underwood. See preceding paragraph. There being no church or house of worship at that time in Charlestown-End, he attended public worship at Malden, only three or four miles distant; and was admitted to the church there Jan. 21, 1722–3. His wife Elizabeth had been admitted to the same church, April 8, 1722. Of that church Rev. Joseph Emerson had been ordained pastor, Oct. 31, 1721, after the removal of Rev. David Parsons to Leicester.

He removed to Leicester about the year 1723, where his brother William and his relatives Capt. Samuel and Thomas Green were already settled. He was there a man of some consideration; and received a commission as "Captain of the first foot company in Leicester," Dec. 12, 1743. Within a year war broke out between France and Great Britain, and Capt. Green was frequently called on to have his command in readiness to meet the enemy, as the following order will show:—

"Sir, This moment I Received the Governours Express, and pursuant there to You are Required In his majesty's name on Your utmost Perill to Draw out of Your Milatary Ward twenty five men compleatly armed and furnished with Amunition and fourteen Days Provision and march them without the Least Delay to Worcester and from thence to Proceed to Boston a french Invasion being every moment expected. I say fail not at Your Perill.

"Worcester, Sept. 22, 1746. JOHN CHANDLER, Col.

"Either you or Capt. Whittemore, with two more Comission officers must go, & don't fail."

Directed—"In his majesty's service, to Capt. Nathl. Green, in Leicester."

We copy the above from the original order, now before us.

Some time in the latter part of his life he resided in Sutton, as we infer from some deeds given by Nathaniel Green of Sutton to Nathaniel Green of Leicester; and one or two deeds from other parties to Nathaniel Green of Sutton. He returned to Leicester before his death, and d. there.

"Capt. Nathaniel Green died at Leicester, Sept. 27, 1774, a little after 7 o'clock at Night." [Record made by Ebenezer Green. [313.]

The children of Nathaniel and Elizabeth Green were—

167. Elizabeth,[5] b. in Malden, Nov. 3, 1714; m. Benjamin Sanderson, Feb. 8, 1737–8. She died at Woodstock, Vt., Aug. 27, 1801, "a. 87 y. 9 mos. 13 days."
168. Winefred,[5] b. "at Charlestown-End," July 16, 1716; m. Benjamin Baldwin, April 6, 1749. She d. March 27, 1777, æ. 61.

Rev. NATHANIEL GREEN,^{5} (Nathaniel,^{4} William,^{3} William,^{2} Thomas,^{1}) eldest son of Capt. Nathaniel Green^4 of Leicester; b. in "Charlestown-End," (incorp. Dec. 17, 1725, as Stoneham,) April 16, 1721, "it being Sabbath day;" m. about 1748, TABITHA PRENTICE.

He resided during many years in Leicester, where all his children were born. He removed at length to Charlton, where he d. March 21, 1791, "aged 70 years wanting one month."

He was a Baptist clergyman, and an acceptable preacher for his time. He labored in Leicester, Spencer, Charlton, and other towns in that vicinity. For a time he supplied a vacant church in Boston. He was noted for firmness and decision of character; was an earnest christian, a plain, evangelical preacher, and was greatly beloved by a large circle, whose spiritual wants had been supplied by his ministrations. He was a strenuous assertor of religious liberty, and did much towards bringing about that change of public sentiment which, within the memory of many living, resulted in the entire separation of church and state. His diary, now in the possession of his descendants, shows that the churches where he preached were greatly benefited, under God, by his faithful labors.

He was ordained to the work of the ministry by a council convened in Spencer, Oct. 12, 1763; he being then in the 43d year of his age. He owned a farm in the north part of Charlton, which he left by Will to his family. His Will is dated Feb. 11, 1791; proved April 5, 1791; recorded Worc. Prob., 21 : 258. He gives wife Tabitha one-half of his dwelling-house, a garden, one cow, two sheep, one-third of his real estate, "and the whole of my moveables;" directs his funeral charges and just debts to be paid out of the remainder of his real estate; which with this deduction, and a further deduction to "my son Ebenezer Green for his trouble and care in taking care of me in my advanced age," he leaves to his children, Lemuel, Nathaniel, John, Rufus, Ebenezer, Lydia Wheelock, Mary Green, and Chloe Green; each dau. to have half so much as a son, and each son an equal share. SURNAME BOOKLETS

"Surname Booklets" are comprised of materials relating to one particular surname (including all known spellings). Each of my booklets contain a minimum of thirty pages plus an everyname index and the recent ones all have a location index.

Each "Surname Booklet" will generally contain five distinct sections.

1. Miscellaneous material: county histories, census records, Bible records, marriage records, family genealogies, cemetery records, etc.
2. Branches/lineages/family group sheets submitted by descendants of an ancestor of this surname. (Format varies with different compilers.)
3. Queries are accepted at no cost. They must be related to the specific surname.
4. Book reviews - related to the specific name.
5. Everyname index. Mine also include a location index.

"Surname Booklets" are published on an irregular basis, and may vary greatly on the frequency of publication. This is determined by the individual compiler and who reserves the right to edit all materials.

"Surname Booklets" are not to be confused with a Family Publication which limits material to that of a specific family (one in which all descend from a common ancestor).

"Surname Booklets" differs from a Newsletter primarily from the standpoint of size. Newsletters generally contain very few pages and seldom provide an index.

QUERY BOOKLETS

"Query Booklets" contain queries and may contain book reviews and other material pertaining to the "Query Booklet." Free Queries are accepted relating to the appropriate "Query Booklet."

Each booklet contains a minmum of twenty-five pages, plus an everyname index. The more recent ones also have a location index.

Gaspee Virtual Archives

Rufus Greene, Jr. (c1748-1831)

The Gaspee Days Committee at www.gaspee.COM is a civic-minded nonprofit organization that operates many community events in and around Pawtuxet Village, including the famous Gaspee Days Parade each June. These events are all designed to commemorate the 1772 burning of the hated British revenue schooner, HMS Gaspee, by Rhode Island patriots as America's 'First Blow for Freedom' ™. Our historical research center, the Gaspee Virtual Archives at www.gaspee.ORG , has presented these research notes as an attempt to gather further information on one who has been suspected of being associated with the the burning of the Gaspee. Please e-mail your comments or further questions to webmaster@gaspee.org.

Evidence implicating Rufus Green:

Per Staples <http://gaspee.org/StaplesGaspee.htm > p67 Rufus Greene gave testimony on January 1773 before the Royally appointed commission on the burning of the Gaspee how an officer of the Gaspee, one James Dundas, master of the Gaspee (misspelt Dundass in references), assaulted him on board the sloop Fortune, belonging to his family's business, Nathanael Greene & Co. It ws this assault of Dundas on Rufus Greene, and the seizure of the sloop that began the whole Gaspee affair, for this created much resentment by the colonists. On p76 Peter May, one of the crewmen of the Gaspee, gave testimony that it was the same Mr. Greene he saw on that vessel that was part of the attack on the Gaspee:

> "...one of which people was named Greene, whom he saw in the cabin of the Gaspee the day after they had seized a sloop, of which he appeared to be the owner and out of which he took some rakes; this deponent saith that the said Greene is a tall, slender man, wearing his own hair of a brown color."

Note that there were only two persons testifying before the commission on January 14, 1773, Rufus Greene and Aaron Briggs. It would have been easily discerned that Rufus had not come across Aaron during the attack, and someone (probably Darius Sessions) took pains to avoid Peter May and other Gaspee crewmen from testifying on the same day in order to prevent recognition of Greene during the depositions. The bulk of the Gaspee crew testified beginning two days later, on the 16th through the 19th of January.

We know that it was a Nathaniel Greene who was the owner of record of the Fortune and its cargo of 12 hogshead of rum that were seized by Dudingston and the Gaspee. But we also know that Nathanael Greene of 1742 denied having been a participant in the Gaspee affair when asked sometime after the Revolution had started. This Greene went on to become General George Washington's second-in-command during the later part of the Revolution. This famous Nathanael Greene, more often than not, has had his name misspelt. The proprietor of Nathaniel Greene & Co. could have been this Nathanael, but was more likely his father, Nathaniel born in 1707, who would've been the uncle of our Rufus Greene, Jr. We can probably assume that Peter May is not talking about Rufus' father, Rufus Greene, Sr born in 1712, since the suspect is described as having brown hair and the elder Rufus would've been 60 years old at the time. Our suspect, Rufus Greene, Jr. would've been 24 years old at the time of the Gaspee attack. For complete detals on this sideshow, see Bryant, SW, Rhode Island Justice-1772 Vintage, Rhode Island History, July 1967 26:3, pp65-71 which details the lawsuits the Greene family filed against Dudingston for the seizure of the cargo of rum.

Of interest though, we do present some 1773 quips of Nathanael Greene on the issue of the Royally-appointed investigatory commission on the burning of the Gaspee, from: Nathanael Greene: Strategist of the American Revolution by Theodore Thayer. New York: Twayne Publishers, 1960:

When aroused, few in Rhode Island were as bold and outspoken as Nathanael Greene. The commission, he warned Sammy, had alarming implications for every "lover of Liberty in America." If this "Mode of Tryal is established into a Precedent it will naturally Affect all the other Colonies." The practice of offering large rewards for information concerning offenses against the Crown encouraged perjùry and led to no end of mischief, he declared. Lord North's ministry, it appeared to him, was actually thirsting for "American blood." The Rhode Island Assembly, of which he was a member, was, in his opinion, weak and cowardly for not taking a stand against the illegal directives of Crown officials.

Biographical Notes:

According to the RI Historical Cemetery Database at http://www.rootsweb.com/~rigenweb/cemetery there are three Rufus Greenes listed, but none of the age suitable to have been involved in the Gaspee attack. He also doesn't show up in the 1790 census of Rhode Island on USGenWeb. This makes sense as we know Rufus Greene, Jr. died in New York.

<http://web.uvic.ca/~jlutz/howay1.html > (Link stale as of 2005) GREENWOOD.- An American ship of New York, commanded by Rufus Greene, which sailed from that city for the Northwest Coast in 1801. She is mentioned in E. B. Hewes, MS. Notes on American Vessels, but no reference to her has been found. This would have required a lengthy and dangerous trip around Cape Horn as there was no Panama Canal at the time. Since Rufus Greene was known to be in command of the sloop captured by the Gaspee in February 1772, we can assume that Rufus continued in his career on the sea.

Catherine Williams in her book, Biography of Revolutionary Heroes: Containing the Life of Brigadier Gen. William Barton and also of Captain Stephen Olney. Providence, Published by the author, 1839, p84 names a Captain Greene as captain of a RI privateer vessel during the Revolution.

Per The Patriot Resource <http://www.patriotresource.com/people/greene/page1.html > the Greene family were Quakers and owned a farm, grist mill, sawmill, ironworks, wharf, warehouse, dam, forge and anchorworks, as well as engaged in coastal trading.

The extended Greene family, for the most part, was concentarted in the Coventry-East Greenwich-North Kingstown area about twenty miles South of Providence. On the othe other hand, according to the 1770 List of Providence Taxpayers, James, Nathaniel, and Thomas Greene all held property in Providence at the time.

Alas, the Mrs. Rufus Greene portrait painted by famous artist Jonathan Copley does not appear to be the wife of our Rufus Greene, but rather one from Texas.

He was the son of Jabez Greene (1673) and the brother of Nathaniel Greene (1707). This Nathaniel Greene was the father of the more famous Nathanael Greene (1742) to which our Rufus Greene was first cousin. We also discover a notice of bankruptcy published in the November 10, 1770 Providence Gazette for one Rufus Greene, merchant, of East Greenwich. During a subsequent auction, his mansion-house, outbuildings, and over 50 acres of land were sold to pay off the debts. A notice published in July 18, 1772 discusses the defunct Company of Rufus & Russell Green, and names Barbara Greene as administrix for the estate of Russell Greene, she being sued to recoup money owed from the company. Legal notices regarding the resolution of the estate were still being published in 1793, long after he had died, and the matter referred to the State Assembly.

Rufus Jr. GREENE was born on 17 Mar 1748 (or 17 Jan 1747 according to some LDS files) in East Greenwich, Rhode Island. He died in 1831 in Houndsfield (v Haunsfield), New York. He married Margaret BUCKOUT (v Buckhart) on 10 Jul 1768 in Poughkeepsie, Dutchess, New York.

This is the Rufus Greene, Jr. of our concern. It is quite possible (and a common practice at the time) that Rufus Greene Sr and Martha Russell had a child born January 1747 who died shortly after birth, then named a subsequent child born in March of 1748 Rufus also. We admit to some confusion on his birth date. In either event, we know that its WAS Rufus Green, Jr (not Sr.) who burnt the Gaspee. In testimony in East Greenwich relative to the taking of the sloop Fortune in February 1772, he is identified specifically as Rufus Green, Jr. (Staples, p67).

Margaret BUCKOUT was born about 1745 in East Greenwich, Rhode Island. She died in Apr 1831 in Houndsfield, New York. She married Rufus Jr. GREENE on 10 Jul 1768 in Poughkeepsie, Dutchess, New York.

Rufus probably met her on a packet freighter trip to New York for his uncle's company. Martha was the daughter of one John Buckout, who originally hailed from RI.

They had the following children:
M i John GREENE was born in 1768. He died in 1837.
F ii Nancy GREENE was born on 20 Mar 1770.
F iii Phylotte GREENE was born on 20 May 1772. She died on 6 Jan 1866 in Salt Lake City, UT
M iv James GREENE was born in 1774.
M v Caleb GREENE was born in 1775.

According to Ancestry.com files, there was a Rufus Greene living in East Greenwich, RI in 1782 through 1830 which might or might not be our Rufus. Curiously, there is also listed a Rufus Green, Esq. also in 1782-1830, and a Rufus Greene, Jr. who first appears in the 1830 census. We do not find any Revolutionary War pension records for Rufus Greene, but that does not necessarily exclude him from such service. From the Providence Gazette of November 6, 1799, we discover an ad for a Rufus Greene, Bookseller and Stationer, who had his shop on the west end of the Great Bridge. In 1801 he had moved his shop next to Governor Fenner's Mansion. We also note in 1801 that the firm of Christopher C. Olney and Rufus Greene was dissolved. We also see that Rufus Greene, Jr & Company's correspondence containing a note of $300 to Eliphalet Robinson was stolen in a stage-coach robbery in September, 1829. We note that there was also a Rufus Greene of Boston, merchant.

From New York papers we see an ad throughout 1803 describing a paint pigment grinding and mixing machine, with ties to Rhode Island, and noting that a Rufus Greene was a druggist on 82 Maiden Lane in New York. In 1804 he entered with Francis Mariotte into the Firm of Greene & Mariotte, [v Mariette] distillers of fine cordials, a firm which was dissolved in 1809. In 1810 Rufus Greene and his wife, Eliza, had their buildings sold at auction. persuant to an order of the Court of Chancery. All in all, we tend to doubt any relationship between the Rufus Greene, New York druggist with Rufus Greene, Jr. of Poughkeepsie, NY.

No close relationships are yet established between Rufus Greene and other Gaspee raiders, but then, the attack on Rufus Greene and the Fortune started it all. According to www.whipple.org a William Greene married Welcome Arnold. The Welcome Arnold House is two doors down from the site of the old Sabin Tavern where the tactics to burn the Gaspee in 1772 were laid out. Another great source is Based on the above evidence, the Gaspee Days Committee recognizes Rufus Greene, Jr as one of the true American patriots that attacked the HMS Gaspee in 1772.

Charles E. GREENE (#1)

Among the leading citizens of Yolo county is Charles E. Greene, the owner of El Nido ranch, comprising two hundred acres eight miles southwest of Woodland, which ranks among the finest and most highly developed ranches in that section. Representing the type of man well fitted for the labor of building up a community, Mr. Greene's executive ability and tenacity of purpose, united with unquestioned honor and good judgment have enables him to control with ease the many problems which are inevitable in his work.

Mr. Greene was born July 9, 1865, in the old Greene home adjoining the present place, where his father, whose life appears elsewhere in this volume, located in 1852. Upon completion of his public school education the son entered the California Military Academy, at Oakland, where he continued his studies for three years and later took a course in the Atkinson Business College at Sacramento, where he graduated in 1885. He then assisted his father in the management of their ranch consisting of twelve hundred and eighty acres devoted to grain raising. In 1902, in connection with the home place, he rented the Hext place, comprising nine hundred and sixty acres adjoining the old home, and after giving up the Hext ranch he rented the Marders grain ranch of nine hundred acres located near Esparto. After four years he relinquished his control of this property in order to take charge of the two hundred acre tract allotted to him upon the division of his father's estate, since which period he has devoted his efforts to the improvement of his inheritance. In addition to raising barley, which runs fifteen to twenty-five sacks per acre, he conducts an almond orchard of fourteen acres which produces from one-half to three quarters of a ton per acre annually. His comfortable bungalow erected in 1906 is surrounded by trees, vines and shrubbery, artistically arranged, and his entire ranch is suggestive of the progressive thought and untiring industry of its owner.

July 30, 1902, Mr. Greene was married at Sacramento to Miss Cornelia Purrington, whose birth occurred in Sutter county and whose parents, Henry and Anna (Parker) Purrington, were natives of Maine and California respectively. Two daughters, Lucile and Dorothy, have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Greene. Since 1896 Mr. Greene has been an active member of Athens Lodge No. 228, F. & A. M., at Davis, being affiliated also with Woodland Chapter No. 46, R. A. M., and Woodland Commandery No. 21, and by virtue of his wife's identification with Ionia Chapter No. 199, O. E. S., at Davis, is likewise enabled to enjoy the privileges of that order. In all enterprises pertaining to the public good, Mr. Greene is prompt to lend his hearty support, and is conceded to be one of the most able citizens of the section in which he is so well and favorably known.

Charles E. Greene, deceased, formerly a prominent farmer of Yolo County, was born in Shelburne, Vermont, May 24, 1825, his parents being Rufus and Betsey (Weed) Greene. His ancestry is traceable to the De Gras family of France, and later to the family in Rhode Island named Greene, with whom the famous Revolutionary General Nathaniel Greene was connected. When the subject of this sketch was twelve years of age his parents removed to Hopkinton, New York, resided there seven years, where Charles attended the Hopkinton Academy, and then removed to Southport (now Kenosha), Wisconsin. There Mr. Greene taught school awhile and then clerked in the drug store of this brother, Pliny P., a practicing physician. March 13, 1849, he started for California with an ox team, and arrived in Sacramento, October 13, after a comparatively pleasant trip.

Upon his arrival in California, Mr. Greene engaged in mining for a time, with success; then he was in mercantile business, in partnership with Mr. Hutchinson, in Sacramento, on J street, where the old Fountain House now stands, until 1852; and while there the firm was obliged to take some land in Yolo County in security for a debt, and Mr. Greene took charge of it. It was twelve miles from Woodland and known as the "Big Ranch." The grant title was proven fraudulent, after expensive litigation in the courts. This, with other things, caused Mr. Greene to lose all that he had saved. He lived there, however, until 1860, when he moved upon the place where his widow now resides. After locating there he had many discouraging failures, but fortune at length crowned his efforts, and at the time of his death, in July, 1886, he had one of the most productive farms in Yolo County. It is situated five miles north and east of Davisville, and contains 1,280 acres, all enclosed. It is the best of wheat land; and here the widow and two of the children reside, continuing in agricultural pursuits.

Mr. Greene was a settled Republican and a public-spirited and exemplary citizen. In July, 1855, he married Miss Bertha L. Bennett, of Sacramento. She was a native of Muscatine, Iowa, and a daughter of Milo and Mary J. (Gibson) Bennett, the father a native of Vermont and the mother of New Hampshire. Mr. Bennett crossed the plains with his family to Sacramento in 1851, principally for the sake of his health; but he died the next year. Mrs. Greene has had three children: the eldest, Kate A., who is now Mr. B. B. Tuttle, of Portland, Oregon; Ella A. and Charles E., Jr.

Mrs. Greene relates the following encounter with Indians while crossing the plains in 1851:
"When we left Council Bluffs, our company numbered about sixty persons, all expecting to go to Oregon, but before reaching the junction of the California and Oregon roads, my father with some others decided to go to California. Our division consisted of ten men, two women and seven children, separating from the main company, taking our way toward California. Occasionally we were visited by Indians in small numbers, and while we treated them kindly always refused their request for ammunition, which they seemed anxious to have. A few days after one of these visits we had some cattle shot, but as they were not greatly injured we did not leave them. This may have angered the Indians, for we began to notice signal fires in all directions. Arriving at the Humboldt River, where water and grass was plentiful, we concluded to rest for a few days, but on a second consideration we thought it prudent to try and overtake a company who were only two days in advance of us. The signal fires increased in numbers, making us feel that danger threatened.
"At the close of the second day we reached a place called Stony Point, and as usual one of our number was sent forward to choose our camping grounds; my sister and myself accompanying him to the place selected, we went down to the river to get a drink and wash our faces. The gentleman with us stooped down to get some water and was in the act of putting it to his lips when he discovered an Indian on the opposite bank just raising his gun. Simultaneously a report sounded from both sides, and our escort called to us to run as the Indians were upon us. This we die crying 'Indians!' 'Indians!' at every step. Our cry was heard just as the wagons were forming the camp. Immediately our captain ordered a retreat from the willows, and we barely reached a place where the Indians could not fire on us from ambush, when we were surrounded by between seventy-five and 100 yelling, dancing Indians. The wounded man had managed to reach the camp in a short time; two others were disabled, thus reducing our defenders to seven men. We made breastworks of bed and pillows, thus affording a slight protection from which our men could return the fire of the enemy.
"The sun went down on a seemingly doomed company, surrounded by overwhelming numbers. Our death, or worse, our capture, seemed inevitable. Within our camp there was a death-like stillness, each one realizing that the next moment might be our last on earth. The firing from both sides continued until midnight, when we could see that some sort of a council was being held. We were not left long in suspense as to their intentions, for suddenly the sky grew red and we were inclosed <sic> in a wall of fire. The grass was about eighteen inches high and very dry, and as we saw the flames advancing toward us we felt that there was no longer any hope. Surely God was our defense; for when the fire had reached within twenty yards of the camp it went out. They did not dare relight it, as any attempt to do so would have brought them within range of our guns; so they continued shooting at us until about eight o'clock the next morning. Then, seemingly discouraged, they disappeared. After a consultation among our company it was deemed advisable to proceed, but as the traveled road was for the greater part of the way among the willows we decided to abandon that, taking our way across the hills with only the sun for our guide. Each man carried his gun in one hand, a whip in the other, the women and children always carrying weapons. The wisdom of our course was soon manifest, for the Indians once more swarmed from their hiding places and commenced firing upon us.
"For three days and nights we were without water, excepting such as we found in the stagnant pools, and this so foul that we could only drink it with vinegar or make it into coffee. The stock was watered by women and children passing buckets from hand to hand, while every man with gun in hand stood ready to fire in case of emergency. For a week we dared not stop to rest, making a fire once a day, and then only enough to make our coffee, lest the smoke should reveal us to the enemy. Day and night we journeyed on until it seemed as though death was better than the terrible suspense. Gradually our fears lessened, though it was weary traveling. As my father had lost all his stock, and only by dividing the teams belonging to others were we able to bring one wagon, which contained all we possessed in the world. After we met a company of prospectors from California we felt comparatively safe, experiencing no farther trouble from the enemy."

Charles E. GREENE, Sr.

Among the wave of emigrants who left the east to answer the call of the Southern California gold fields in 1849 was C. E. Greene, who passed away July 10, 1886, at his home near Davis, after laboring with other brave pioneers nearly thirty years to bring to a state of beauty and production the vast tracts of virgin land in Yolo county, which awaited the touch of the homesteader. Born in Sherburne, Vt., in 1824, he received his education in the local schools of Vermont and New York state. During the excitement occasioned by the discovery of gold in California in 1849 he left his boyhood home in company with others, making the journey by ox-teams, and after a trying and hazardous trip finally reached Sacramento. For a year thereafter he worked in the mines with success, and later was engaged in the mercantile business in Sacramento. In 1852 he settled on Putah creek, where he carried on farming on an extensive scale, later purchasing a tract of twelve hundred and eighty acres of valuable land located five miles from Davis, upon which he made a specialty of grain raising.
Mr. Green was united in marriage in Sacramento in 1855, with Miss Bertha L. Bennett, who was born in Muscatine county, Iowa, and whose parents, Milo and Mary (Gibson) Bennett, were among the first settlers of Sacramento in 1851, having crossed the plains that year. Mr. and Mrs. Greene were blessed with three children: Mrs. B. B. Tuttle, Mrs. Col. James Jackson, and Charles E., Jr. Identified with all public movements of merit, Mr. Greene was known throughout the county as a man of the highest worth and to those who had the privilege of knowing him best, the memory of his life will ever remain an encouragement and a blessing.
